Sec. 28.0212(b)

• Educational goals for the student;
• Diagnostic information, including appropriate monitoring and intervention, and other evaluation strategies;
• Include an intensive instruction program;
• Address parent participation, including parent’s expectations; and
• Provide innovative methods to promote the student’s advancement, including flexible scheduling, alternative learning environments, online instruction, other interventions.
For middle school, the statute states:

Sec. 28.0212:

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (b), a student's individualized education program developed under Section 29.005 may be used as the student's personal graduation plan under this section.
A principal of a high school shall designate a school counselor or school administrator to review personal graduation plan options with each student entering grade nine together with that student's parent or guardian. The personal graduation plan options reviewed must include the distinguished level of achievement described by Section 28.025(b-15) and the endorsements described by Section 28.025(c-1). Before the conclusion of the school year, the student and the student's parent or guardian must confirm and sign a personal graduation plan for the student.

A personal graduation plan under Subsection (c) must identify a course of study that:

1. promotes:
   1. college and workforce readiness; and
   2. career placement and advancement; and

2. facilitates the student's transition from secondary to postsecondary education
