

Family Engagement Professional Development:

Connecting Families to Student Learning

Fall Offerings

Academic Parent Teacher Teams

September 24, 2019

9:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Workshop #: 60087

Cost: $25

Are you looking for a more effective way to conduct your parent teacher conferences that help support student learning in the home and builds positive relationships with parents? Academic Parent Teacher Teams is a model that accomplishes that!

Academic Parent Teacher Teams (APTT) is a research and evidence-based family engagement framework and best practice that aligns grade level learning skills, student performance data, and family-teacher communication and collaboration in order to inform and enrich the way families support learning at home.

This session will teach the components to develop successful academic parent teacher teams that can build the capacity of families to effectively engage in supporting their child's grade level learning goals.

Spring Offerings

Effective Communication:

Partnering with Parents

January 16, 2020

8:30 a.m.—3:30 p.m.

Workshop #: 58854

Cost: $75

Communicating with parents is one of the most challenging and potentially stressful tasks that teachers and administrators face on a daily basis. Research has shown that establishing strong communication and relationships with parents can have positive and tangible effects on a student's success in school. Whether trying to resolve an argument caused by miscommunication or sharing difficult information, this session will provide tips and tools to help you know how to handle tough situations and foster positive relationships with your students' parents.

Family Engagement: Link to Student Learning

March 4, 2020

9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Workshop #: 58867

Cost: $25

Family Engagement is more than just a series of events, but about inviting parents about inviting families to attend events on your campus, but when you do plan events on your campus, how are they linked to student learning? This session will focus on strategies and ideas to not only link student learning to family events, but everything you do within your school so families can clearly understand, be involved with, and communicate what their child is learning and how they are a part of it.

Academic Parent Teacher Teams

April 2, 2020

9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Workshop #: 58873

Cost: $25

Academic Parent Teacher Teams (APTT) is a research and evidence-based family engagement framework and best practice that aligns grade level learning skills, student performance data, and family-teacher communication and collaboration in order to inform and enrich the way families support learning at home. This session will teach the components to develop successful academic parent teacher teams that can build the capacity of families to effectively engage in supporting their child's grade level learning goals.

Kimberly Baumgardner, M.Ed.

ESC-20 Consultant, Family Engagement
(210) 370-5431

kimberly.baumgardner@esc20.net

"In this complex world it takes more than a good school to educate children. It takes more than a good home. It takes these two major educational institutions working together." -Dorothy Rich