Harness the power of the premier news database with Find a Topic—an effortless guide to relevant search results.

It’s as simple as 1…2…3

1. Select a Topic

   !Find a Topic

   Find a Topic

   - Business and Economics
   - Environment
   - Health
   - Literature
   - People
   - Performing and Fine Arts
   - Politics and Government
   - Science
   - Social Issues
   - Technology
   - World Cultures

2. Select a category from our suggested searches – “Politics and Government” such as Democracy

   !Suggested Searches

   Suggested Searches: Politics and Government

   1. Campaign
   2. U.S. Presidential Election
   3. World Leaders
   4. Government Types

3. Dynamically generated search results page – “Democracy”

   !Search Results

   Find a Topic puts the power of finding the right content into the hands of students and faculty. News becomes valuable information about a wide array of subjects.

   - It is ideal for students needing help choosing and finding topics for assignments
   - Supports all academic disciplines with unique primary sources not found in other resources
   - Provides nearly 500 million current and archived articles that can be searched, browsed, printed or emailed

To learn more, contact your NewsBank sales representative at sales@newsbank.com, or call 800.762.8182.